Tigers, Tigerettes Drop Winners To Jo Byrns

Schools Have Representatives At Banquet

Three all-conference football coaches and principals of the Cumberland Valley conference school were present Wednesday night at the conference banquet, held in Woodbury, a newcomer to the conference football activity. A representative speaker...

Macon County High School's cage teams opened their 1956-57 cage season last night by dropping a twin bill to Jo Byrns High School.

The Jo Byrns lads won over the Tigers 36-31, while the Tigerettes fell before the Jo Byrns sextet by a 30-25 count.

The Tigerettes, in the curtain raiser, had a poor shooting range the first half and 5 at half-time. Wilson...

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

We believe in the search for and the teaching of truth, and in the dignity and worth of the individual human mind and human spirit. We are concerned with thorough scholarship, good manners, good citizenship, moral, ethical, and religious values, the physical and mental health of pupils, as well as preparation for making a living. It is our hope that students who attend the school will be more valuable human beings and more useful members of society. We are striving to develop men and women with well-rounded personalities who are willing to accept their responsibilities to God and man.

CLASS HISTORY

Now that we are completing our high school careers, we feel rather sad at the thought of leaving Macon County High School because, as we look back, we have many happy memories here. Let us turn back the pages of time and review these years that we will cherish forever as some of the happiest of our lives.

We can never forget that first year when 60 Eighth Grade students entered the doors of Macon County High School. We were not too active that first year as we were the first Eighth Graders to attend here and we had not been "accepted". We elected the following for our class officers: H. L. Goodall, president; Frank Overton, vice president; Paula Bandy, secretary; Randall Goodman, treasurer; Bobby Gann, reporter; and Burgin Glover, sgt. -at-arms. Mrs. John D. Wootten and Eugene Cook were our sponsors. H. L. Goodall, Burgin Glover, and Bobby Gann were on the football squad. Glenda Gann was our cheerleader and Rachel Goad was the attendant to the football queen. Sue Gregory was selected as class queen.

We entered the next year with 100 "Green Freshmen". The Class officers were as follows: Robbie Roark, president; David Wilson, vice president; Robbie Cothron, secretary-treasurer; Sue Gregory, reporter; and J. L. Wilkerson, sgt. -at-arms. Our sponsors were Miss Rossie Harwood, Mrs. Carl Baker, and Ronald Bergmeier. We placed 5 boys on the football squad this year. Dee Anne Whitley was our cheerleader and Sue Gregory was attendant to the football queen. Robbie Cothron was on the girls' basketball squad. Several joined the F. F. A., F. H. A., and 4-H Clubs.

In the fall of '55, the "Silly Sophomores" dropped to 74. Our class officers were: H. L. Goodall, president; Edd Freeman, vice president; Robbie Cothron, secretary-treasurer; Sue Gregory, reporter; and Joe L. Blankenship, sgt. -at-arms. Mrs. John Dossy and Mr. H. M. Wagoner were our sponsors. We had 12 boys on the football squad, six girls and one boy on the basketball squad. Paula Bandy was our cheerleader and Dee Anne Whitley was attendant to the queen. Several of the Sophomores joined the Beta Club.

There were 63 "Jolly Juniors" in the fall of '56. This year we thrived on winning, whether it be at contests or intramurals; we did our best and usually came out first. Our class officers were: H. L. Goodall, president; Joe Blankenship, vice president; Barbara Bowman, secretary-treasurer; and Bobby Shrum, sgt. -at-arms.

CLASS HISTORY

To lead us along this year were Mrs. Homer Blankenship and Mr. Keith Clark. Many of the Junior boys were on the football squad and H. L. Goodall and Bobby Shrum were placed on the C. V. C. football honor. In intramurals, Sue Gregory and Barbara Miller lettered. Paula Bandy was our cheerleader. Robbie Cothron, Paula Bandy, and Sue Fishburn were on the basketball squad. We had a number of juniors elected to Who's Who. Janice Wilburn was chosen as football queen and Barbara Bowman was her attendant from the Junior class. Dee Anne Whitley was Miss MCHS. The Junior Class presented their play, "Everybody's Crazy", which was sponsored by Keith Clark. The cast consisted of H. L. Goodall, Bobby Gillihan, Edd Freeman, Sue Gregory, Barbara Miller, Barbara Bowman, Howard Wesley Cothron, Andy Whitley, Eugene Burns, Margaret Raby, Sue Fishburn, Paula Bandy and Hollis Bradley.

Now comes the time when we can look down on the "Eighth Graders", "Green Freshmen", "Silly Sophomores", "Jolly Juniors" and let them know whom to follow. As "Dignified Seniors", we take the cake. The following were elected and served well as officers during our Senior year: Howard Cothron, president; Mildred Deckard, vice president; Barbara Bowman, secretary; and Bobby Gillihan, treasurer; and Sue Gregory, assembly council. Our beloved sponsors, Mrs. Homer Blankenship and Mr. Keith Clark were with us again this year. H. L. Goodall was captain of the football team and Bobby Shrum, alternate captain. Barbara Bowman was our football queen and Lila Meador was attendant to the queen. Our cheerleaders were Paula Bandy and Dee Anne Whitley. Robbie Cothron and Paula Bandy were on the basketball team and Robbie served as captain. Several Seniors placed on Who's Who, Barbara Bowman and H. L. Goodall were the most popular girl and boy; Janice Wilburn received the title of prettiest girl; Dee Anne Whitley and John Crowder voted best all around girl and boy; Paula Bandy was selected as most athletic girl; Kenneth Crabtree was the most studious boy; Mildred Deckard was most likely to succeed; Nelson Cluck was chosen as quietest boy and Robbie Cothron received the honor of D. A. R. Representative.

Now as we near the completion of our goal, we realize that these past years have been valuable ones. We are indeed grateful to our teachers for the patience and understanding they have shown us in helping us reach our goal here at Macon County High School. It is with a feeling of sadness that we close this chapter in our history.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1957, of Macon County High School, being of sound mental faculties, do make, declare, and publish this our last will and testament.

To the Juniors, we leave our good sportsmanship that we have acquired the past four years.

To the Sophomores, we leave our ability to learn and to be successful.

To the Freshmen, we leave our good conduct.

To the Eighth Grade, we leave our determination to succeed.

To our sponsors, to our teachers, and to our principal, we leave our appreciation and gratitude for the kindness, courtesy and patience they have shown us the past four years.

I, Betty Robertson, leave my good grades in shorthand to Mary Blankenship.

I, Jimmy Driver, leave six inches of my height to Tom Bandy.

We, Shirley Doss and Mary Katherine Wooten, leave our ability to always stick together to Sue Doss and Mary Driver.

I, Mary Sue Reid, leave my ability to be a good housekeeper to all married school girls.

I, Bobby Bosley, leave my manly physique to Billy Reid.

I, Mildred Deckard, leave my ability to succeed in all undertakings to my sister Wilda.

I, Hollis Bradley, leave my rowdy ways to Randal Walton.

I, Jeanetta Scott, leave a few of my boy friends to the Freshman girls.

I, Margie Meador, leave my old love letters to Roxie Holland.

I, Hazel Sliger, leave my quiet ways to Margie Barton.

I, Andy Whitley, leave my ability to skip classes to anyone lucky enough to get by with it.

I, John Crowder, leave my ability to flirt with all the girls to Elmer Roark.

I, Shirley Woods, leave my ability to always be having fun to Sue Goodman.

I, Kenneth Crabtree, leave my scientific ability to those taking Chemistry.

I, Peggy Sloan, leave my typing worries to Marie Scruggs.

I, Dean Andrews, leave my long tongue to Tommy Ramsey.

I, Virginia Sewell, leave my shyness to Doyne Swan.

I, George Bray, leave my baby blue eyes to Bobby Bullington.

I, Sue Fishburn, leave my mathematical ability to Jeanette Walton.

I, Rondle Meador, leave my nickname "Mousie" to Donald "Mickey" Lyles.

I, June Bray, leave the tears I've shed over shorthand to anyone unlucky enough to take it.

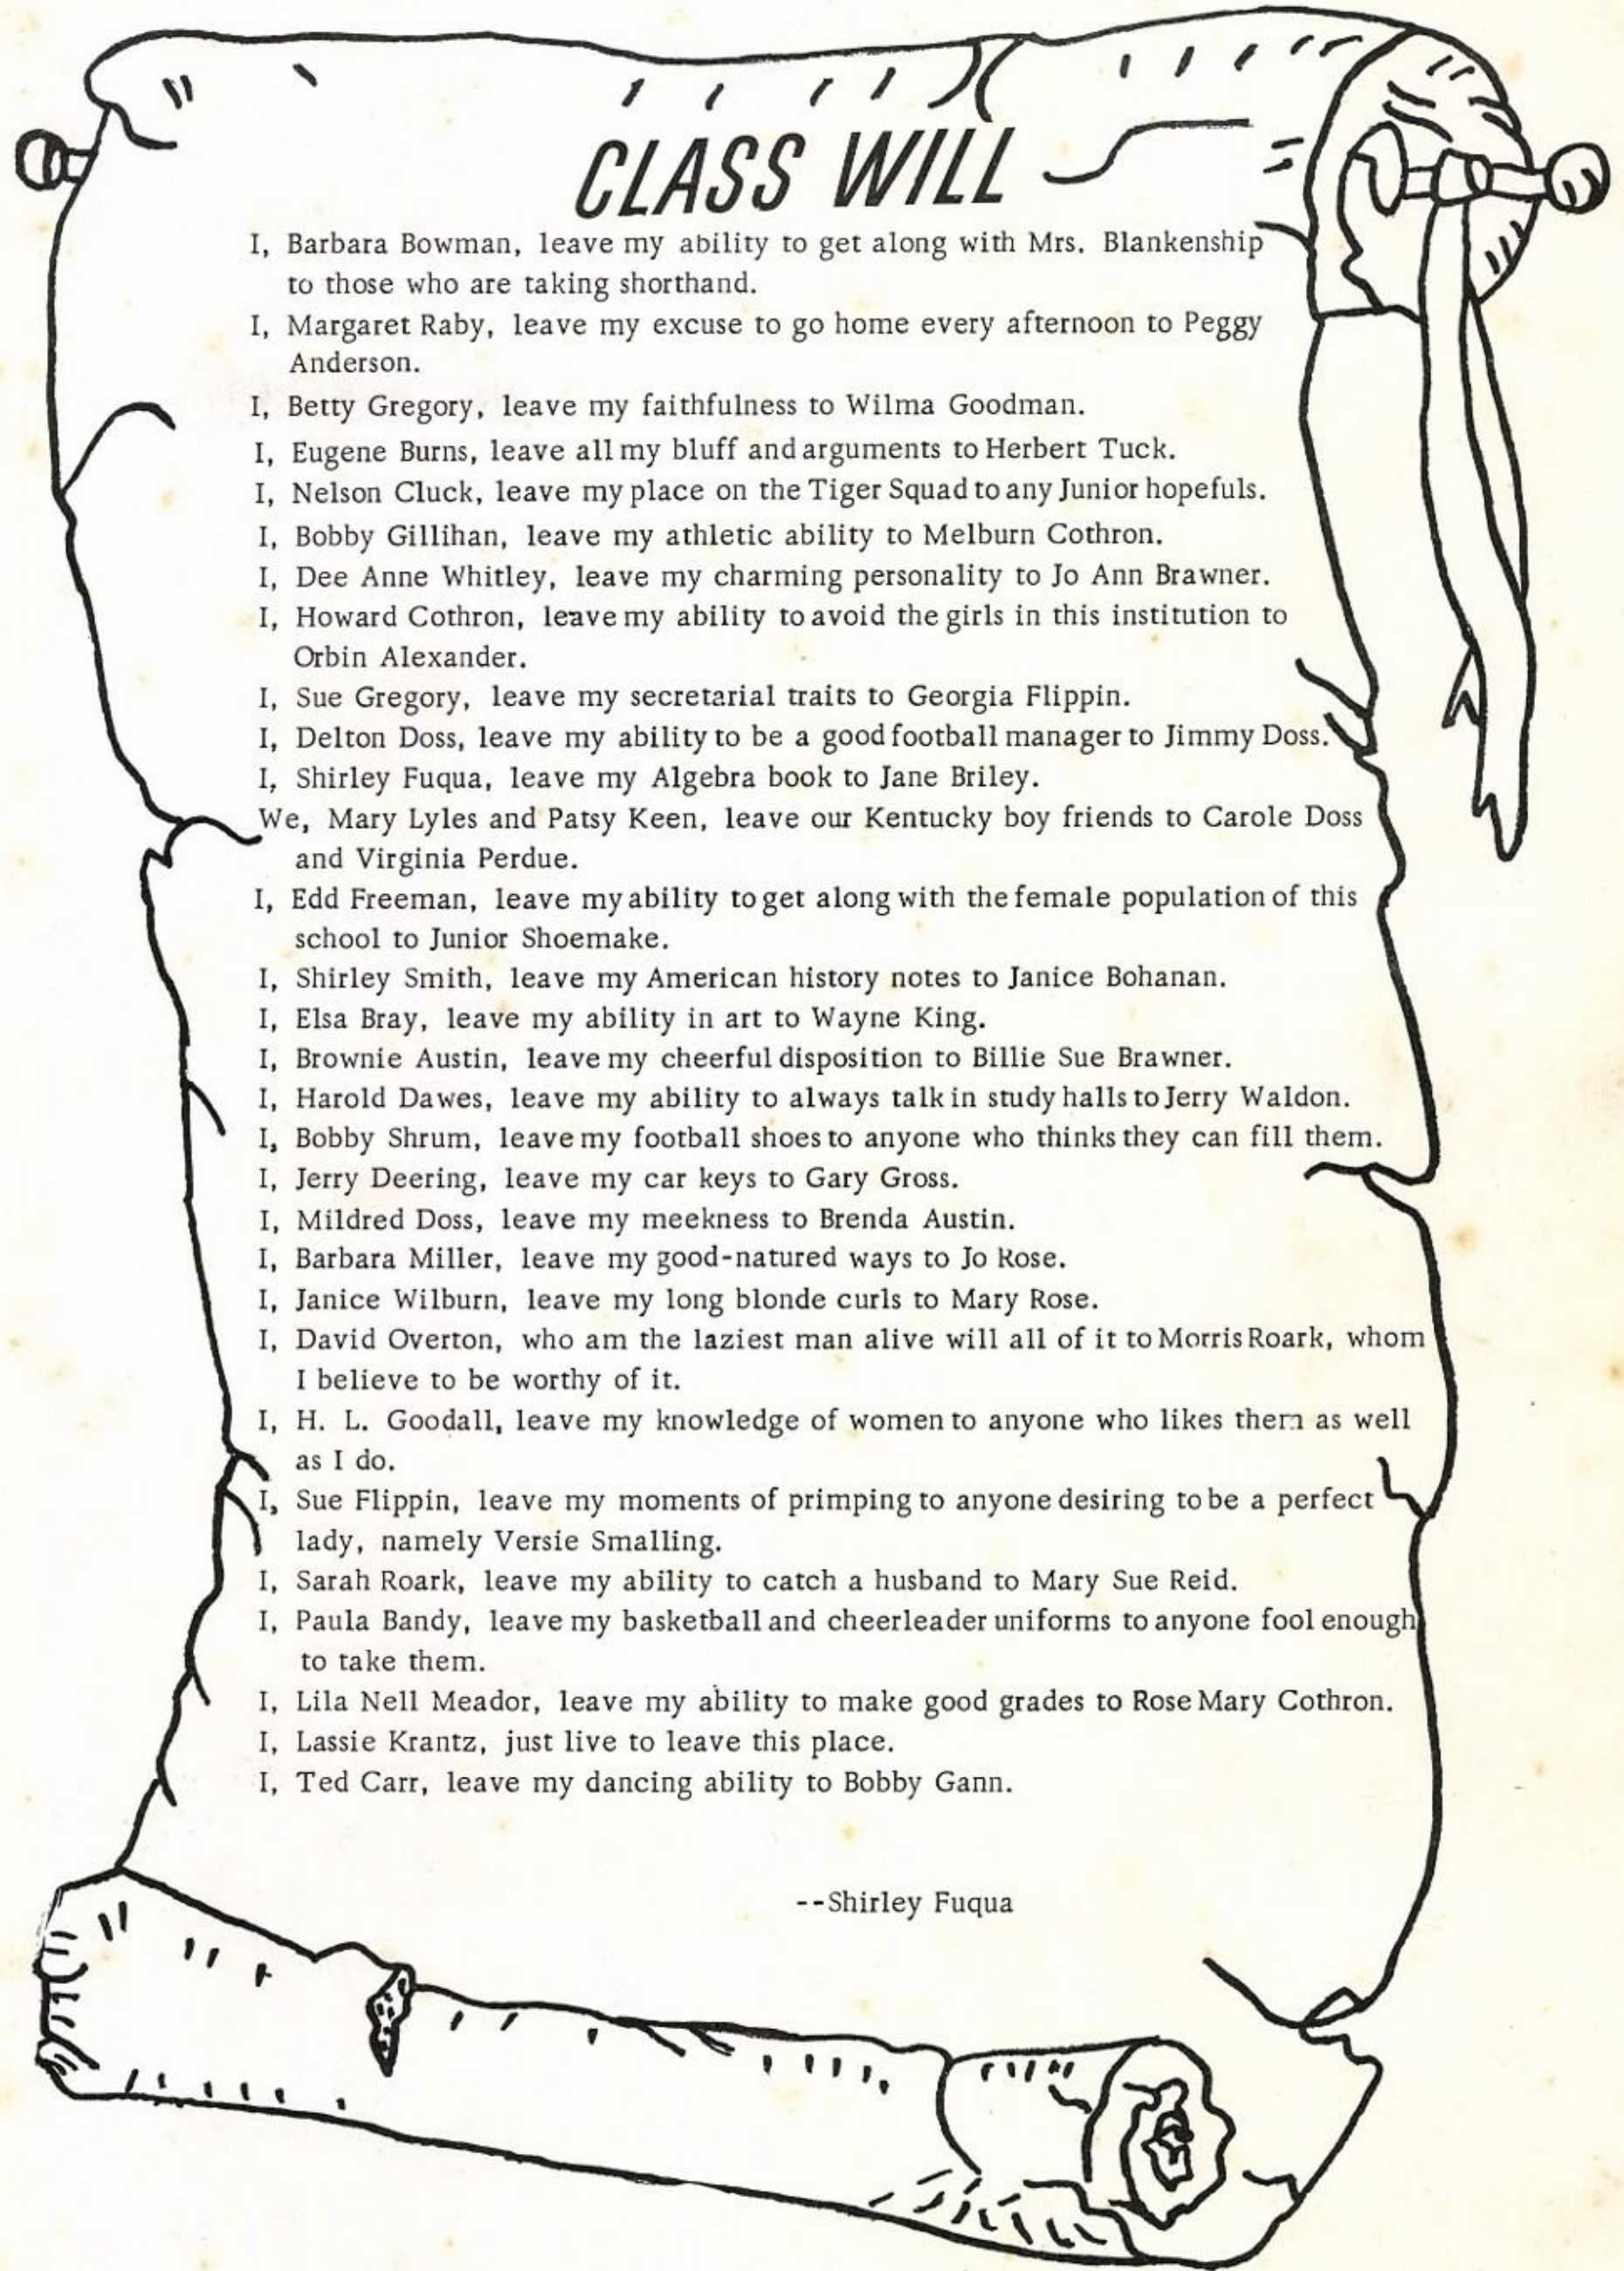

I, Bonnie King, leave my singing voice to ? ? ? ?

I, Robbie Cothron, leave the key to my giggle box to Veva Glover.

I, Jack Knight, leave my red hair to anyone not lucky enough to have it.

I, Don Curtis, leave my copy notes to Billy West.

I, Boyd Doss, leave my one time permanent place in Sophomore English to anyone that is stuck with it.

CLASS WILL

- I, Barbara Bowman, leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Blankenship to those who are taking shorthand.
- I, Margaret Raby, leave my excuse to go home every afternoon to Peggy Anderson.
- I, Betty Gregory, leave my faithfulness to Wilma Goodman.
- I, Eugene Burns, leave all my bluff and arguments to Herbert Tuck.
- I, Nelson Cluck, leave my place on the Tiger Squad to any Junior hopefuls.
- I, Bobby Gillihan, leave my athletic ability to Melburn Cothron.
- I, Dee Anne Whitley, leave my charming personality to Jo Ann Brawner.
- I, Howard Cothron, leave my ability to avoid the girls in this institution to Orbin Alexander.
- I, Sue Gregory, leave my secretarial traits to Georgia Flippin.
- I, Delton Doss, leave my ability to be a good football manager to Jimmy Doss.
- I, Shirley Fuqua, leave my Algebra book to Jane Briley.
- We, Mary Lyles and Patsy Keen, leave our Kentucky boy friends to Carole Doss and Virginia Perdue.
- I, Edd Freeman, leave my ability to get along with the female population of this school to Junior Shoemake.
- I, Shirley Smith, leave my American history notes to Janice Bohanan.
- I, Elsa Bray, leave my ability in art to Wayne King.
- I, Brownie Austin, leave my cheerful disposition to Billie Sue Brawner.
- I, Harold Dawes, leave my ability to always talk in study halls to Jerry Waldon.
- I, Bobby Shrum, leave my football shoes to anyone who thinks they can fill them.
- I, Jerry Deering, leave my car keys to Gary Gross.
- I, Mildred Doss, leave my meekness to Brenda Austin.
- I, Barbara Miller, leave my good-natured ways to Jo Rose.
- I, Janice Wilburn, leave my long blonde curls to Mary Rose.
- I, David Overton, who am the laziest man alive will all of it to Morris Roark, whom I believe to be worthy of it.
- I, H. L. Goodall, leave my knowledge of women to anyone who likes them as well as I do.
- I, Sue Flippin, leave my moments of primping to anyone desiring to be a perfect lady, namely Versie Smalling.
- I, Sarah Roark, leave my ability to catch a husband to Mary Sue Reid.
- I, Paula Bandy, leave my basketball and cheerleader uniforms to anyone fool enough to take them.
- I, Lila Nell Meador, leave my ability to make good grades to Rose Mary Cothron.
- I, Lassie Krantz, just live to leave this place.
- I, Ted Carr, leave my dancing ability to Bobby Gann.

THE SENIOR CLASS

PROPHECY

Reporter for New York Herald. Covering election of first lady president of the United States, Miss Barbara Bowman. Sorry can't attend.
Sue Gregory

Am author of two of the six worst sellers up to date. Must finish a third by the first of the month so have to miss reunion. If any of you carry a spare plot with you, please loan it to me.
Edd Freeman

History Teacher--Scheduled to give lecture on Primitive Egyptian History to a class of football players who flunked the first semester.
Jeanetta Scott

Big basketball game tonight--12-lers. vs. Arkansas Travelers. The team sends its best wishes for a successful reunion.
Patsy Keen, Bonnie King, Brownie Austin, Mildred Deckard
Shirley Doss, Sue Flippin and Coach Paula Bandy

Ushers in big movie theater. Only way to see all the shows. Marilyn Monroe tonight!
Rondle Meador, David Overton
and Delton Doss

Own Cuban night spot in Havana. Expected crowd of 15,000 to welcome guest star, Shirley Bon Bon Woods tonight. We're sorry we can't attend.
Mary Katherine Wooten

Following basketball team, 12-lers. around. Only way to see Patsy. Game tonight so must go.
Don Curtis

Very busy looking for three eligible, rich and handsome bachelors. Sorry, it's very important and we can't leave. If any hopefuls are available there send their names immediately.
Mildred Doss, Hazel Sliger, Virginia Sewell

Sorry can't make the reunion. Joint partners in Westmoreland pool room and expecting a booming business tonight.
Boyd Doss and Hollis Bradley

Mama's frantic with worry. Little Jr. has mumps, Suzie is in the flour barrel and the twins are exercising their lungs.
Mrs. Betty Britt Gregory

Steam riveters. Like the quiet atmosphere. We're putting nuts in new sanitarium, so can't leave.
Ted Carr and Jimmy Driver

Am a lady miser. Take in house cleaning and furnaces to tend. Want money to buy a pearl necklace. Can't come; my busy night.
Peggy Sloan

Final test coming up--must make out a shorthand and typing test tonight. So sorry I can't attend.
Betty Robertson

Am a farmer. Raise winter wheat and summer squash. Can't come because am busy with harvest.
Jack Knight

Am private secretary to the head of a huge corporation. He was born crazy and had a relapse. Won't give me time off to come to reunion. I shall write all his letters backward for a week.
Janice Wilburn

Am still following my husband around. Will leave for Honolulu tonight. Would never let him go there alone.
Mrs. Sarah Scott Roark

Just couldn't find a baby sitter to keep my 8 children. Hope it will be a successful reunion.
Mrs. Mary Sue Ford Reid

Those are the telegrams I imagined you would send and you must admit they do sound like you. Here's hoping you'll all be as successful as they say you are, ten years from now.

Dee Ann Whitley

PROPHECY

Last night, as I sat thinking of the class reunion we hope to enjoy together in the future, I found myself imagining the result if, at some given date, say ten years from now, every member of the class should be too busy to attend the reunion. That would, of course, be rather discouraging to the chairman of the committee, unless she, also, were too busy to attend.

But, I thought, how interesting if on the morning of the reunion each absentee sent a telegram in which was stated the sender's occupation and reason for absence. And how interesting if these telegrams were collected in a little book and passed about so that all the class members might get first-hand information about the others. I became so engrossed in the idea that I even pictured to myself the exact wording of the telegrams the various people would send. Would you like to hear them?

Just joined navy to see the world through a porthole. Shall think of you all in every port, as I walk through the slums and see the peculiar people.

Dean Andrews

Pilot of helicopter. Must rescue Sue Fishburn Doss from top story of Life and Casualty Building because elevator is stuck.

Mary Lee Lyles

As an astronomer, am studying the heavens at seashore with beautiful girl assistant. Star gazing date tonight.

John Crowder

Keeping a pet shop. Specialize in eels, hound dogs, and elephants. Sorry we can't come tonight; expecting a shipment of Japanese beetles.

Lassie Krantz and Margie Meador

Sorry can't attend reunion. Scheduled to make speech at Lady's Garden Club, on care of violets and touch-me-nots.

Nelson Cluck

An instructor in plain and fancy golf; making lots of money. Five dollars a lesson. Also give bridge and oil painting lessons to spectators between golfing efforts. Am starting a series of evening dancing classes tonight, so am unable to attend reunion.

Robbie Cothron

Emergency case just arrived. Can't make it and need head nurses, Margaret Raby and Shirley Fuqua, to keep father, Bobby Bosley under control.

Dr. Kenneth Crabtree

Stewardess for American Airlines and doing it solely to meet famous passengers. Elvis Presley and the President are on this flight.

Elsa Bray

Sorry can't attend. Notre Dame vs. Michigan State. Must stay and win game for the Irish.

Bobby Shrum

H. L. Goodall

Bobby Gillihan

Still looking for a way to Red Boiling. Ball game tonight and we can't miss it.

June Bray and Shirley Smith

Exciting event tonight--Appear on $64,000 Question. Expect tough word--almost missed fibromatoid last week.

Eugene Burns

Am designer of cross word puzzles, magazine covers, and necktie patterns. Must complete designs for holiday gift ties showing Christmas bill motif.

Barbara Miller

Singing engagement. Will be seen and heard over channel 10, MBC, Lafayette, at 7:30 tonight.

Harold Dawes

Sorry can't come tonight. Head floor walker at shirt factory. Working overtime.

Lila Meador

Civil Engineers. Tunneling Rockies to shorten trip for Hollywood commuters.

Jerry Deering, George Bray

Howard Cothron and Andy Whitley

Macon County High School's age teams opened their 1956-57
age season last night by dropping a twin bill to Jo Byrns High School.

The Jo Byrns lads won over the Tigers 36-31, while the Tigerettes fell before the Jo Byrns sextet by a 30-25 count.

The Tigerettes, in the curtain raiser, had a poor shooting
